Dear Gottlieb:

Below is the accounting due on June 1, 1957. I am grateful that the total now due the American Zionist Council is reduced compared to previous months. By dint of extremely careful management and economies, I have been able to keep our costs to a minimum. (You will note also that no additional request is being made for our Ninth Anniversary Celebration, although not all of the bills for these expenses have been received. My final report will be an amazingly low one on this item and I do not anticipate the need for any request in this respect at all.)
