Dear Ms. Fritsch:

This letter responds to your letter received January 9, 2012, concerning alleged lobbying activities by the American Israel Public Affairs Committee (AIPAC) and/or the American Israel Education Foundation (AIEF).

The Internal Revenue Code contains taxpayer privacy provisions enacted by the Congress to protect the privacy of tax returns and tax return information of all taxpayers. Therefore, I cannot comment on what action, if any, we may take based on the information you provided.

However, I can tell you that we maintain an ongoing examination program to ensure exempt organizations continue to meet the requirements for tax-exempt status. When we receive information about an organization that raises questions about its continued exempt status or compliance with the tax laws, we forward the information to our Dallas office to determine if it warrants an examination or other action. If you have additional information about an exempt organization you want to submit for our consideration, please send it to:
